

Speaker will be local resident, Bill Krzastek, who will give a brief overview on his hobby of collecting cars of interest.

Bill came to Waynesboro in 1973 from New Jersey and spent half of his career with General Electric, Comdial, and Forma. He recently retired after teaching Mathematics for 21 years in both the Waynesboro and Augusta County School systems.

Bill's vehicles have been featured in numerous international publications such as Motor Trend Classic, Octane Magazine, Classic and Sportscar, Hemmings, Forbes, and The London Sunday Time and have been on extended display at the Antique Automobile Club of America and The Petersen museums. He has also appeared with his vehicles on the television program, Jay Leno's Garage and with famous customizer George Barris on Barrisbuilt TV.

Bill and his wife Sue live in Waynesboro.
