

Greetings, W-S Members, In looking forward to our 70th Anniversary Party, I found the pictures from our 65th Party held in May 2015 at Charlie Rimel's Barn. I was unable to attend since I was at UVA recovering from heart surgery. I missed a great party then but I'll be at the 70th!

RAMBLINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT

Santa Claus has the right idea, visit people once a year. (Victor Borge)

Saturday, April 9th, a 50 degree and brisk 11 AM morning had some 28 (by my count) members and guest's in a kaleidoscope of vehicles waiting to kick off our first car tour to Southern Augusta County and into Northern Rockbridge County. (This was the Susan Gray Memorial Memorable Motoring Tour set up by Susan and Jack before Susan passed away in September 2021.) All 13 vehicles remained in parade mode throughout the trip to Quaker Steak and Lube for a fabulous off the menu meal.

It was then on for visual tours and 53 ending miles to DAP's Ice Cream for the tour conclusion at 3:30 PM. (note) When the tour leader, the idiot, gets on his phone and misses a turn, he thoroughly deserved the admonition. He should have been tarred and feathered to boot.

Karen had a huge "alien" removed from her left hand rendering many wife's jobs not doable, one if which is the laundry. She advised me where the washing machine was located (I always wondered what that contraption was) and how it operated (even where and how much detergent to put in). One thing that was emphasized was to separate the colors. So at 10AM I went downstairs to do laundry. I came up for supper and she casually inquired as to where I had been all day. "Doing the laundry just as you said!" "It only takes an hour to do it" was the reply. "What on earth took you so long?" "I did EXACTLY as you said to do. I did a load of whites and separated the colors. I did a load of Reds, a load of Blue, one of Black, one Yellow, one Green and one Brown".

Although it cannot be printed here, my brain fully grasped the meaning of her reply, part of which was "I married a moron". I'm going to go out on a limb here and think there may be just a minor communication problem.

Guys, don't ever attempt to please the little lady, it'll come back to haunt you

Old Providence Stone Church

The first stop on our tour route was this church built in 1793 that replaced a log structure built around 1740. It was in service until 1859 when a new larger church structure was built across the road. This building was used as a school, a residence, general store and finally a social hall. It was gutted by a fire in 1959 but the congregation restored it to resemble the original appearance with the replacement of windows and the roof. The church is located on Old Providence Road, Steeles Tavern, VA.

Save the date

We've received word that a Memorial Service will be held for Janice and Ronnie Shanholtzer on May 21st at 2 p.m. at Victory Fellowship Church 3206 Limestone Lane, Dayton, Va.

Susan Gray Memorial Memorable Motoring Tour

Saturday April 9, 2022

Our group gathered at Staples in Staunton on a crisp and sunny morning.

We had time to socialize a bit before heading South.

Duane and Rebecca brought their 1957 T-Bird.

Jim Gregory and Roger McGinnis drove El Camino's

The leisurely lunch stop was Quaker Steak & Lube in Raphine. The food was great!

The building features a large display area with one wall full of vintage metal toys and pedal cars.

Morris Cameron inspects the resident Ford AA truck.

A variety of stationary engines are on display.

An interesting U.S. map used state license plates.

Tour cars at the lunch stop.

1921 Ford T Model

This is the title to my Dad's Stepfather's 1921 Ford T Model. I recall a couple of stories of this car.

Seems he was on his way to work one winter day in the car. The road was icy and as he was going down hill there were a number of cars at the bottom of the hill. Instead of running into them, he spun the car around and hit the curb which broke out the spokes on the rear wheel. Replacing the wheel was no big deal until about two weeks later as they were going down the road and a wheel passed them! A comment was made that "someone lost a wheel". About that time the T hit the ground. Seems when Dad hit the curb it also broke the axle.

Dad was on his way to work and the T was running rather poorly. He pulled both the spark and gas levers down. At that time he joined the infamous two-piece crankshaft club. I don't remember what happened to the car after that.

Dad did go on to buy the second 1928 Model A Roadster to come to Charlottesville but there are also stories of this car I remember.

Strange, I can remember this but can't remember what I did yesterday.
